they have the Henderson-Brinker matter.
The Orden City Street Railway company will probably also retuse to pave the three blocks of their track from Wall to Washington avenues, and should that be the decision reached when the acre ach comes, the council will order Wilkerson to rethe council will order Wilkerson to remove the track and shut out the company from the depot. When Messrs. Jarvis at 11:30 a. m. tomorrow (Sunday.) and Conklin were here they stated that the company would refuse to do the required paving, but as the council now has its dander up the fur will fly from someones back if the requirements of the paving ordinance and the franchises of the railway companies are not compiled with

At the conclusion of the day's business in the Fourth district court this afternoon short memorial services were held in memory of Judges Hunsacker of Brigham City and Snelling of Logan, whose deaths occurred during the early part of the month. A number of the members of the bar resising in Brigham City and Logan were present. Several speeches were made by attorneys who had been intimately acquasined with the deceased, and upon motion the court appointed Messrs. Bansford Smith, A. R.
